

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP BREAKFAST

Learn about prostate cancer, PSA testing, and men's health research.

BRING A FRIEND

- Hot breakfast
- Door prizes
- Medical experts
- Free event

Saturday, August 27
9 - 11 a.m. (program)
Breakfast served from 8:30 – 9 a.m.

Marriott at Eagle Crest
1275 South Huron St.
Ypsilanti, MI 48197

TO REGISTER:
Call 734.998.7071 or visit www.mcancer.org/outreach

Maha Hussain, M.D., FACP - Professor of Medicine & Urology at the University of Michigan, and Associate Director of Clinical Research for the U-M Comprehensive Cancer Center. Her research interests include new therapies for prostate, bladder, and kidney cancers.

Isaac Powell, M.D. – Professor in the Department of Urology at Wayne State University and Karmanos Cancer Institute. His research interests include prostate cancer in African American men, community-based education, and early detection.

Derek Griffith, Ph.D. - Assistant Professor in the University of Michigan School of Public Health and Director of the Center on Men's Health Disparities. His research interests include the role of lifestyle factors on black men's physical and mental health.

Hosted by the University of Michigan Comprehensive Cancer Center Community Outreach Program and The Prostate Net.

The Prostate
Net

University of Michigan
Comprehensive Cancer Center

TO LEARN MORE:
Cancer AnswerLine 800-865-1125
www.mcancer.org